OKTOBERFEST 2025

DAY 1- BRUSSELS SEPTEMBER 17

Arrival in Brussels, check-in at hotel.

We'll visit Delirium Village, an area with a wide variety of bars and over 2,000 beers to choose from.

DAY 2 - BRUSSELS

SEPTEMBER 18

Cantillon Brewery. Tour its facilities and enjoy a tasting of craft beers made using spontaneous fermentation.

Walk through the old town of Brussels, visiting places such as:
Grand Place, Royal Saint-Hubert Galleries, Monts des Arts and Manneken Pis.

We will visit T KELDERKE to try typical Belgian dishes such as carbonade flamande (beef stew in beer) or moules-frites (mussels with fries), accompanied by the best local beers.

DAY 3 - BRUSSELS SEPTEMBER 19

Brasserie de la Senne, a pioneer of bitter, dry, hoppy beers in Brussels long before the craft beer boom

Moeder Lambic Fontainas: Possibly the best selection of draft beers in town, with over 40 options, many of them hoppy and fresh.

DAY 4 - MUNICH SEPTEMBER 20

Train journey from Brussels to Munich

Check in

Walk through the center of
Munich (Marienplatz)

DAY 5 - MUNICH SEPTEMBER 21

TRADITIONAL COSTUME AND RIFLEMEN'S PARADE

One of the highlights of the Oktoberfest in Munich. It takes place on the first Sunday of the festival and brings together more than 9,000 participants from all over Bavaria, Germany, and other European countries.

During the parade, you can admire traditional Bavarian costumes (Trachten), marching bands, horse-drawn carriages decorated with flowers, and members of historical rifle associations (Schützen) in their characteristic uniforms.

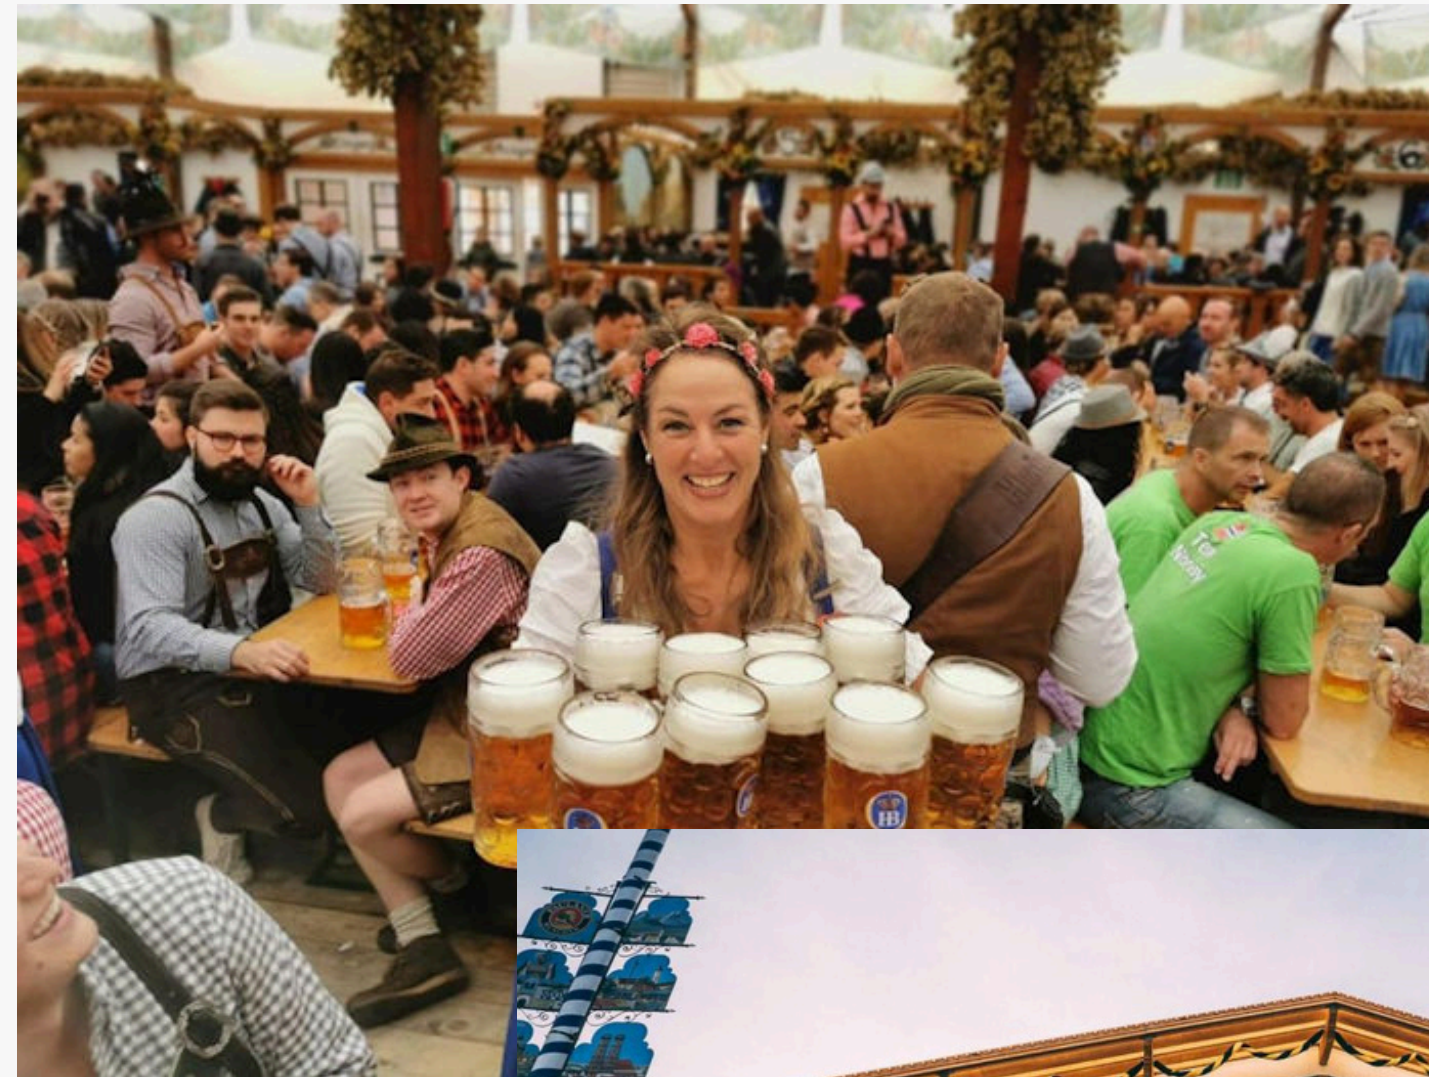

DAY 6 - MUNICH SEPTEMBER 22

BEER TENT

Guaranteed seating in the beer tent. Our traditional Oktoberfest waitress will escort us to our reserved seats inside one of the large festival tents. Your reservation includes two beer vouchers (1 liter each) and one food voucher (half a roast chicken or equivalent).

Get ready to experience this authentic Bavarian tradition like a local, with music, toasts, and an unforgettable festive atmosphere.

DAY 7 - SEPTEMBER 23

RETURN

Transfer to Airport or Train Station.
